EMERGENCY FIREFIGHTER HIRING

Emergency Firefighters (EFF) must be 18 years of age to be eligible for employment. Individuals can receive crew training at age 16 or older.

The Division of Forestry (DOF) employs two categories of Emergency Firefighters (EFF) in its wildland fire program:

- Type II EFF crews
- Non-crew EFF

Type II EFF crews are hired, managed, and paid by either the State of Alaska or BLM under the guidelines set forth in the Alaska Interagency Emergency Firefighter Type II Crew Management Guide. The list of Designated Crews is found on page 22 & 23 and the key to acronyms for this list are on page 24.

Access to Firearms

- All non-crew EFF being considered for work need to submit an EFF Application annually so hiring personnel can tell if further action is warranted based on answers provided.
- All incumbents of positions in the warehouse or as drivers need to annually submit the Qualification Inquiry – Firearm Possession form. See pages 28 & 29.

Note: Firearms Inquiry Forms should be accompanied by the definition of “misdemeanor crime of domestic violence”, Select Portions of Title 18 United States Code – page 30.

Hours of Work

EFF are hired as temporary emergency workers in response to hazardous wildfire situations. The State does not guarantee the length of employment, working schedules, or number of hours per day. EFF crews will be paid for no less than eight hours of work per day except for the first and last day of an assignment, mandatory day off, or when being terminated. Non-crew EFF have no similar guarantee.

Timesheets and Pay - See Incident Payroll, Chapter 2.

EFF Employment Information

General information about the EFF program, as well as an information packet and application for non-crew positions, can be found at <http://forestry.alaska.gov/employ.htm>.

Alaska Job Center

Different Alaska Job Center Offices throughout the state offer varying levels of assistance. DOF is responsible for coordinating with local Job Center offices to develop procedures for referring and recruiting applicants during fire season for their Area.

Non-crew EFF hires must be made through Alaska Job Center whenever possible. Area or Regional offices can hire from applications previously collected by Job Center and forwarded to Forestry in lieu of contacting Job Center first each time. All DOF offices will use a standardized employment application (BLM or DNR Emergency Firefighter or Incident Support Worker form, see page 8).

Previously employed EFF recommended for rehire with acceptable performance ratings may either be name requested from Alaska Job Center or contacted directly because of fire operational needs. Some Alaska Job Center offices only accept applications for a specific time period. Others do so constantly. Employment-related telephone inquiries from perspective non-crew EFF should be referred to the nearest Alaska Job Center Office provided the Job Center is accepting applications. If not, an application can be filled out and kept on file in case hiring needs occur.

If completed Job Center applications aren't at hand, regular job orders can be placed by phone for EFF, but minimum job qualifications and titles must be given to Alaska Job Center in order for them to provide qualified applicants.

The hiring supervisor will notify Alaska Job Center when a referral is hired from their list of applicants.

Alternate Hiring Procedures

Applications will be available at each DOF office and Alaska Job Center. Nothing in this procedure prohibits hiring of additional workers when Alaska Job Center is unavailable such as weekends, holidays, or after hours.

To support equitable hiring practices, documentation of all attempts, both successful and unsuccessful, to contact applicants by phone are recorded on their application or on a contact log, noting date, time of call, and the name of the person making the call. Logs and applications will be kept on file for 2 years by the Area or Regional Admin.

Requesting a Non-crew EFF

All EFF hires will be initiated and documented on a Resource Order.

Requests for non-crew EFF will be made from the appropriate choice from the List of Approved EFF Classifications (page 7) on a General Message Form to the State Logistics Center or respective Area Dispatch Office for processing with the following information:

ALASKA DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES
DIVISION OF FORESTRY
ALASKA INCIDENT BUSINESS MANAGEMENT HANDBOOK

- Non-crew EFF position requested
- Requirements for job (e.g., Driver must have a current driver's license)
- Name if a rehire
- Expected start date and beginning time
- Whether they need to be fully qualified or if a trainee is acceptable
- Reporting location
- Any other special instructions

State Logistics or the Area Dispatch will generate a resource order and fill the request.

Felony and Misdemeanor Convictions for Non-crew EFF

When applications reveal a misdemeanor conviction within the preceding five years, or a felony conviction regardless of the date it occurred (2 AAC 07.091), a hiring supervisor or manager may not make a job offer without DOA Human Resources' review of the conviction information and duties of the position. A hiring supervisor or manager who has knowledge of a conviction will report the information to Human Resources at the time of EFF hiring need.

Classification of EFF

Anyone not fully qualified is considered a trainee, and will be paid one level lower than a fully ICS-qualified individual.

Applicants will be hired and paid at the appropriate EFF classification according to the current EFF List of Approved Classifications (page 7). Hiring offices will work with their Regional Admin Officers to determine appropriate pay rate of EFF positions not shown on the List of Approved EFF Classifications. If the work assignment changes, the worker's classification and pay will be appropriately changed to reflect the new duties. Any incidental changes in assignment that cause a rate change must be documented on the crew time report. Permanent or long term changes require a new resource order.

At no time will an EFF, regardless of length of service or qualifications, be paid at a higher rate than the assigned work requires.

Crew Hiring

The following items are needed in addition to those listed previously when hiring a crew:

- Passenger and Cargo Manifest (SOA form 10-3183, page 25)
- Crew time report book given to Crew Boss or Crew Representative
- OF-288's with headers completed and time started are given to Crew Boss or Crew Representative

Additional Notes on Crew Hiring

If there are less than 16 people in the crew, notify dispatch and determine if the crew will still be needed. Make sure each individual is wearing serviceable 8" leather lace-up boots.

Begin the crew's time from when they were ordered to standby at the airstrip or pickup point regardless of when transportation actually arrives to pick them up. The Crew Boss, or occasionally a Squad Boss, may have additional time on the Crew Time Report because of extra duties associated with crew management.

Match up SSN's on the EFF time report and all other hiring paperwork. The hiring official is responsible for the hiring forms reaching the administrative unit in the hiring Area. The Crew Boss or Crew Representative is responsible for getting the time reports, CTR book, and Passenger and Cargo Manifest to the incident Finance Section, or when applicable, to the Area Office.

Distribution of Hiring Paperwork

Route the original hiring paperwork to the Regional office immediately after making a copy for the Area Office. Do not wait until the end of a pay period.

FORM DBUNCP

Rev. 3/2004

ALASKA DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES
DIVISION OF FORESTRY
ALASKA INCIDENT BUSINESS MANAGEMENT HANDBOOK

Form W-4 (2010)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2010 expires February 16, 2011. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. You cannot claim exemption from withholding if (a) your income exceeds $950 and includes more than $300 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends) and (b) another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return.

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you may claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 919, How Do I Adjust My Tax Withholding, for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 919 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 919 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 919 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2010. See Pub. 919, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

CONDITIONS OF HIRE FOR EMERGENCY FIREFIGHTERS

1. You are being hired as an emergency firefighter (EFF) by an agency of the U.S. Government or the State of Alaska. These agencies are referred to in this document collectively as the "Government". Procedures or policies that refer to either the federal or state agencies are specifically addressed. The work is hard and shifts often exceed 12 hours. Prompt compliance with your supervisor's instructions at all times is essential and mandatory. You must be at least 18 years old and in good physical health (a physical examination may be required at the discretion of your supervisor). Close living conditions in incident camps require personal cleanliness. Personal hygiene must meet standards set by your supervisor, particularly your hair, which must be maintained in such a way that a safety hat can be properly worn.
2. Disclosure of your Social Security Number (SSN) is mandatory. You will be ineligible for employment if you fail to provide your SSN. The SSN is the primary reference for the gathering of earnings data in connection with lawful requests from other agencies (Internal Revenue Service or State agencies). The hiring agency alone has direct access to this information. SSN use is necessary because another individual may have a name identical to yours. Always provide YOUR FULL LEGAL NAME on your hiring documents, not nicknames.
3. You must have a current valid Government issued picture identification card (ID card) in your possession at the time of hire and for the duration of the assignment. Tribal or village/regional corporation ID card is not acceptable for travel purposes. You must also have documents that meet federal I-9 requirements to be hired.
4. Standard length for each assignment is 14 days, exclusive of travel time; however, this is not a guarantee of employment. The hiring agency or incident organization may release you at any time.
5. You are required to bring a sufficient supply of all necessary prescription medication for each incident assignment. Notify your regular Government supervisor of any potential life threatening medical conditions, i.e., allergic reactions to bee stings.
6. You will be paid at an hourly rate. The Officer-in-Charge will advise you of the salary rate for your position.
7. Income tax will be withheld from your check. All pay as an EFF must be included as gross income for Federal Income Tax purposes. You may have to report it on your state income tax report, if applicable, in accordance with state instructions.
8. You will be given the opportunity to complete federal income tax withholding forms. Failure to complete the W-4, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, will result in federal income tax withheld at the default tax rate (the highest withholding rate).
9. Alaska does not have a state income tax. If you wish income tax withheld for another state, you must provide the proper state income tax form to the Officer-in-Charge.
10. The U.S. Government will provide you the opportunity to complete a W-5, Earned Income Credit Advance Payment Certificate (EIC). EIC reduces the amount of tax you will owe, if you are eligible.
11. When you sign your time report, you are agreeing it is correct. Do not sign the report until you agree! Keep your time sheet copy until you are paid.
12. You can expect to receive payment within three to four weeks after the end of your employment period. The State of Alaska will mail your check to the address you provide on your hiring paperwork. Federal payments will be made either by Direct Deposit (if you complete the sign-up form) or Treasury check mailed to your address of record.
13. You are required to bring your own personal items to and from the incident in a single bag. The total weight of your bag cannot exceed 45 pounds for the entire duration of the assignment. Radios, "boom boxes", or other electronic gear must not exceed one pound. Individuals exceeding the personal gear weight limitation must leave excess weight items behind. The Government will not be responsible for these items. MINIMUM clothing requirements are listed in the Emergency Fire Fighter Crew Management Guide, Section IV.B.2.a-h.
14. When you are hired for incident assignment, whether or not you may be restricted to an incident camp or staging area is at the discretion of the Incident Commander, or local, regional, or agency policy. Your pay status will be determined by the Officer-in-Charge following Interagency Incident Business Management Handbook and/or the Alaska Incident Business Management Handbook, and the Emergency Firefighter Crew Management Guide.

ALASKA DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES
DIVISION OF FORESTRY
ALASKA INCIDENT BUSINESS MANAGEMENT HANDBOOK

15. Whenever the Officer-in-Charge decides it is necessary, the Government will furnish your meals and lodging without cost. You will not receive reimbursement for meals or lodging that you purchase, meals you do not accept, or when the Government is temporarily unable to furnish meals or lodging.
16. The Government will provide or pay for necessary transportation from the point of hire to the work location. The Government will also provide or pay for transportation back to the point of hire unless you are discharged for cause, quit without a good reason, or deviate your travel.
17. The cost of anything you buy from the commissary will be deducted from your check. The Officer-in-Charge may suspend your commissary privileges if purchases exceed wages earned, less tax withholding. Commissary purchases are included in your 45 pound weight limitation.
18. Designated Government property (such as hard hats, tools, sleeping bags, tents, nomex clothing, etc.) issued to you must be returned. If they are lost, destroyed, or left in bad condition, the cost of them may be deducted from your check.
19. Report any damage to or loss of your personal property to your supervisor before you leave the incident camp. The Government assumes no responsibility for loss of personal items not needed for incident assignment. Reimbursement may be limited to predetermined maximum dollar amounts per item.
20. The Incident Commander may approve paid days off for personnel assigned at the incident. During paid days off periods, the Crew Boss will remain in charge. You are obligated to adhere to any conditions that have been established governing paid days off situations. EFF are not entitled to paid days off at their point of hire.
21. Possession of firearms, marijuana, illegal drugs, and illegal use of a controlled substance is prohibited. Possession or any evidence of usage constitutes grounds for immediate discharge.
22. Possession, use, and/or being under the influence of intoxicating beverages while in pay status constitutes grounds for immediate discharge.
23. If you are fired, or you quit without good reason before your scheduled demobe, your pay will stop immediately. Additionally, the Interagency Resource Representative or Incident Commander will determine whether or not the Government will provide transportation back to the point of hire or pay you for this travel time. If not, you will be responsible for these transportation costs and/or the costs of personal needs during the waiting time.
24. If you are on active duty with the Armed Forces (Army, Air Force, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard) you are ineligible for U.S. Government EFF work. If you are on active duty with the Alaska National Guard you are ineligible for State of Alaska EFF work.
25. If you sustain an injury or become sick, report to your supervisor immediately.
26. THE U.S. GOVERNMENT AND THE STATE OF ALASKA ARE EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYERS. Unlawful discrimination or any kind of harassment will not be tolerated. (This includes behavior such as making threats, abusive language, slurs, unwelcome jokes, teasing and other such verbal or physical conduct.) Creating a hostile work environment will not be condoned. (This includes verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, making unwelcome sexual advances or requests for sexual favors, and unreasonably interfering with the work of others.)

I have been provided the opportunity to complete income tax withholding forms.

HEPATITIS B VACCINATIONS

The Occupational Safety and Health Administration requires employers to offer Hepatitis B vaccinations to employees who may be occupationally exposed to potentially infectious materials. The vaccinations come in the form of three vaccinations: an initial, a second after 30 days, and the final one six months after the initial vaccination.

If you receive an exposure to blood-borne pathogens, the DOF/BLM-Alaska will offer the vaccinations at no cost to employee or volunteers through an appointed medical facility. The vaccinations protect personnel from Hepatitis B, the most serious form of hepatitis.

Symptoms of Hepatitis B include fatigue, mild fever, muscle or joint aches, nausea, vomiting, loss of appetite, and sometimes diarrhea. Should you choose to decline the vaccination, you will be asked to sign a "Hepatitis B Vaccine Refusal Form" for the records. Should you decide at a later date that vaccination is in your best interest, DOF/BLM will provide the vaccination.

WHAT-TO-DO IF YOU ARE EXPOSED (ON THE JOB) TO HUMAN BLOOD OR BODY FLUIDS:

- * IMMEDIATELY report the exposure to your supervisor.
- * Medical evaluation and follow-up will be provided at no cost to you.
- * Medical evaluation, with your consent, will include a blood test to determine infectiousness.
- * Medical findings and evaluation are confidential.
- * Complete the following forms and give to your supervisor:
 - 1) Report of Occupational Injury or Illness (02-921)
 - 2) Employee's Statement (BBP)
 - 3) Health Care Provider Report of Post-Exposure Evaluation (BBP)
 - 4) Exposure Incident Record (BBP)The Supervisor fills out the Supervisor's Accident Investigation Report (02-932)

Reviewed 01/2010

Division of Forestry/Bureau of Land Management employees and volunteers perform a variety of tasks such as handling refuse, coming in contact with blood on work surfaces, or giving first aid that may expose them to potentially infectious materials. Exposure to Human Immunodeficiency Virus and Hepatitis A or B can be minimized if precautions are taken by the employee and the employer.

HUMAN IMMUNODEFICIENCY VIRUS (HIV) is transmitted through sexual contact, contact with human blood or other body fluids, or contact with contaminated needles/syringes. HIV is the disease that can lead to AIDS.

HEPATITIS A VIRUS (HAV) is transmitted through contact with an infected person's feces or indirect fecal contamination of food, water supply, or raw shellfish. It has been known to be transmitted through urine, semen, and tears. Hands and utensils may carry sufficient amounts of the virus to enter the mouth to cause infection. The Interior or Bush communities in Alaska commonly experience outbreaks. Onset may occur in the fall, but is most common in the winter throughout the United States.

Protection for employees who may be occupationally exposed to Hepatitis A through exposure to human feces shall include safe work practices, personal protective equipment, employee awareness, and Hepatitis A vaccination based on current job assignment.

HEPATITIS B VIRUS (HBV) is transmitted to a person through sexual contact, blood transfusions, or contact with human blood, contaminated needles or body fluids (such as joint and lung fluids), or from mother-to-child during the third trimester or at birth.

Protection for employees who may be occupationally exposed to Hepatitis B and HIV through exposure to potentially infectious materials shall include training, safe work practices, personal protective equipment, Hepatitis B vaccinations, housekeeping (laundry, cleanup of blood or body fluids), medical surveillance (physician examination, testing and follow-up), and record keeping.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PASSENGER AND CARGO MANIFEST

Prepare a Passenger and Cargo Manifest (SOA form 10-3183, page 25) if personnel are to be transported away from the point of hire. Press firmly through all four layers.
